Re: FOIA/PA #5-08

Dear Ms. Olshansky:

This responds to your December 21, 2004 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for access to records pertaining to the "identity of, transport and location(s) of, authority over, and treatment of all unregistered, CIA, and ghost detainees interdicted, interrogated, and detained by any agency or department of the United States." You also requested expedited treatment of your FOIA request and the Office of Public Affairs granted your request for expedited treatment. Accordingly, your request was reviewed ahead of others routinely processed on a first-in, first-out basis.

The Office of Intelligence Policy and Review (OIPR) provides legal advice to the Attorney General and the United States intelligence agencies regarding questions of law and procedure that relate to U.S. intelligence activities; performs review functions of certain intelligence activities; and prepares and presents applications for electronic surveillance and physical search to the United States Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court. It has been determined that the fact of the existence or non-existence of records concerning the matters relating to those set forth in your request is properly classified under Executive Order 12958, as amended. Accordingly, we can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records responsive to your request pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(1).

If you are not satisfied with this response you may administratively appeal by writing to the Co-Director, Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of Justice, Flag Building, Suite 570, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, within sixty days from the date of this letter. Both the letter and envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Re: Request Submitted Under the Freedom of Information Act

Dear Freedom of Information Officer:

This letter constitutes a request ("Request") pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (FOIA). The Request is submitted on behalf of the Center for Constitutional Rights ("Requester").

We are filing this Request simultaneously with the Department of Defense (including its components, the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and the Defense Intelligence Agency), the Department of Justice (including its components, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Office of Intelligence Policy and Review), the Department of State, and the Central Intelligence Agency. By this letter, we also request expedited processing pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(E).

Background on Records Requested

Recent news reports indicate that the Central Intelligence Agency ("CIA") has been secretly operating a holding and interrogation center ("CIA Guantánamo Center" or "Center") within the larger American military-run prison at Guantánamo Bay, Cuba ("Guantánamo"). The reports further indicate that individuals apprehended after September 11, 2001, and held by the United States at Guantánamo ("Detainees") in the CIA Guantánamo Center have been separately interrogated by CIA agents.¹

News reports also indicate that the CIA Guantánamo Center is “related to a network of holding centers operated by the CIA at undisclosed locations around the world”² since United States authorities began capturing individuals after the attacks of September 11, 2001. Other news reports state that the “buildings used by the CIA are shrouded by high fences covered with thick green mesh plastic and ringed with floodlights . . . [t]hey sit within the larger Camp Echo complex, which was erected to house the Defense Department’s high value detainees and those awaiting military trials on terrorism charges.”³ According to one military official, the “CIA’s [Guantánamo] facility has been ‘off-limits to nearly everyone on the base.’”⁴

According to a report by the Washington Post, in contrast to the majority of detainees held at Guantánamo, the CIA detainees “are held under separate rules and far greater secrecy.”⁵ Under a presidential decree and policies approved by Administration attorneys, “the CIA is allowed to capture and hold certain classes of suspects without accounting for them in any public way and without revealing the rules for their treatment.”⁶ According to other news reports, these detainees have not and will not receive review of their status through the Combatant Status Review Tribunals.⁷

In addition to the secret CIA Guantánamo Center, there have been numerous media reports during the last two years confirming the existence of CIA detention facilities located around the world, including one in an off-limits corner of the Bagram Airbase in Afghanistan, at Camp Cropper, a detention center on the outskirts of Baghdad International Airport,⁸ on ships at sea,⁹ on Britain’s Diego Garcia Island in the Indian Ocean,¹⁰ in a secret facility in Jordan,¹¹ and in secret locations outside of Iraq.¹² According to a report by Human Rights Watch, detainees are being held in more than 24 secret detention facilities across the globe.¹³ Furthermore, government officials have admitted that even within known facilities, ¹³ Human Rights Watch, “The United States Disappeared: The CIA’s Long Term ‘Ghost Detainees’” October, 2004.

CIA officials have employed a policy under which “ghost prisoners” captured in Iraq and Afghanistan have been interrogated by CIA agents and have had their “identities and locations withheld from relatives, the International Red Cross and even Congress.”¹⁴ Finally, reports have stated that CIA agents have spirited detainees in Iraq to third countries for interrogation under conditions which might violated the requirements of international humanitarian law.¹⁵

The Washington Post reports that other detainees captured during the war in Iraq are being held under the custody of an Army task force, “Task Force 6-26, in a secret facility in Iraq. According to that report, the Pentagon does not officially acknowledge the existence of the unit.”¹⁶

The Request seeks records relating to the identity of, transport and location(s) of, authority over, and treatment of all unregistered, CIA, and “ghost” Detainees interdicted, interrogated, and detained by any agency or department of the United States.

Both international and United States law unequivocally prohibit hiding individuals in such a manner even during wartime. The Geneva Conventions require the registration of all detainees with the Red Cross. They also prohibit “forcible transfers as well as deportations” of individuals, and ban all “physical or moral coercion . . . in particular to obtain information.” The Convention Against Torture (“CAT”), which the United States has signed and ratified, prohibits the use of torture and the infliction of other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.¹⁷ The prohibition against torture is also codified in United States law at 18 U.S.C. § 2340A.

¹⁷ In this Request, the terms “torture” and “cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment” have the meaning accorded them in the CAT, as interpreted by the United Nations Committee Against Torture. Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, Dec. 10, 1984, art. 1, S. Treaty Doc. No. 100-20 (1998), 1465 U.N.T.S. 85. The CAT defines “torture” as “any act by which severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, is intentionally inflicted on a person for such purposes as obtaining from him or a third person information or a confession, punishing him for an act he or a third person has committed or is suspected of having committed, or intimidating or coercing him or a third person, or for any reason based on discrimination of any kind, when such pain or suffering is inflicted by or at the instigation of or with the consent or acquiescence of a public official or other person acting in an official capacity.” Id. The United Nations Committee Against Torture has held that the following techniques constitute “torture” as defined under the CAT: (1) restraining in very painful conditions, (2) hooding under special conditions, (3) sounding of loud music for prolonged periods, (4) sleep deprivation for prolonged periods, (5) threats, including death threats, (6) violent shaking, and (7) using cold air to chill. See Report of the Committee Against Torture, U.N. GAOR, 52d Sess., Supp. No. 44, at para 257, U.N. Doc. A/52/44 (1997). Our use of these terms also encompasses torture and/or “cruel inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment” under any other United States constitutional or statutory provision.

The CAT further provides that “[n]o State Party shall expel, return (‘refouler’) or extradite a person to another State where there are substantial grounds for believing that he would be in danger of being subjected to torture.”¹⁸ This provision is implemented in United States law by the Foreign Affairs Reform and Restructuring Act of 1998, which states that “[i]t shall be the policy of the United States not to expel, extradite, or otherwise effect the involuntary return of any person to a country in which there are substantial grounds for believing the person would be in danger of being subjected to torture, regardless of whether the person is physically present in the United States.”¹⁹

To determine whether the United States is honoring its obligations under domestic and international law, Requesters seek the release of agency records as described in the numbered paragraphs below:

Fee Waiver

The Requester qualifies as "representatives of the news media" and the records are not sought for commercial use. Accordingly, fees associated with the processing of the Request should be "limited to reasonable standard charges for document duplication." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II). These organizations are "entit[ies] that gather . . . information of potential interest to a segment of the public, use . . . [their] editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distribute . . . that work to an audience.” National Security Archive v. Department of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989).

The CCR is a legal and public education not-for-profit organization that engages in litigation, legal research, and the production of publications in the fields of civil and international human rights. CCR also publishes newsletters, know-your-rights handbooks, and other similar materials for public dissemination. These materials are available through CCR’s Development and Education & Outreach Departments. CCR also operates a website, www.ccr-ny.org, that addresses the issues on which the Center works. The website includes material on topical civil and human rights issues and material concerning CCR’s work. All of this material is freely available to the public.

The records requested are not sought for commercial use, and the requesters plan to disseminate the information disclosed as a result of this FOIA request through the channels described above.

We also request a waiver of fees on the grounds that disclosure of the requested records is in the public interest and because disclosure “is likely to contribute significantly to the public understanding of the activities or operations of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester[s].” 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). This Request aims at furthering public understanding of government conduct, and specifically to help the public determine whether or not the government’s commitment to domestic and international proscriptions against torture is honored in practice.

As indicated above, numerous news articles reflect the significant public interest in the records we seek. See articles cited supra; see also Answers about Torture, Washington Post, Mar. 16, 2003, at B06 (“The Bush administration has categorically denied that it is torturing people. But it has offered no details regarding its policies toward interrogations. . . . The secrecy surrounding U.S. policy makes any objective assessment of these allegations impossible. . . . The public is entitled to a fuller understanding.”). Disclosure of the requested records will contribute significantly to the public’s understanding of government conduct.
